© 2021 an interjection

Sara hid Greek letters in each of the theme entries last week. Taking the first letter of those Greek letters spelled out EUREKA, which is indeed an interjection, and our meta answer! Also, there's a fun bonus to this mechanism that not everyone noticed: if you take all of the Greek letters together and translate the entire word into English, you get the exact same answer! How neat is that?? If you tried to translate each letter individually though, you would've ended up a bit lost.
